

FOREWARD

This collection of Knoxville Journal (TN) articles was begun in February 2020 for the purpose of making historical information available for the 90th Anniversary Celebration of North Knoxville Baptist Church in Knoxville, TN. The Celebration was scheduled for March 29, 2000, but was cancelled because of the COVID-19 Pandemic. The church was founded January 19, 1930.

This is a fairly complete set of articles published from 1930 through 1964 in the Knoxville Journal about North Knoxville Baptist Church. A few articles were omitted because they had no useful information concerning the history of the church. The search engine failed to find all files pertaining to the church, but no doubt it found the vast majority of them. All images were obtained by copying articles from a personal subscription of Newspapers by Ancestry. com. Some of the images, particularly photos, did not reproduce well when they were digitized for the website.

Some articles were modified by piecing them back together in a more readable format to fit the layout of the articles. Type sizes varied as well as sometimes being spread over several columns or pages, and photos were separated from articles. Also, a few of the referenced page numbers shown are sometimes off by one or two pages.

The articles are divided into 4 volumes covering the time periods shown below.

Volume	1	1930	through	1939
Volume	2	1940	through	1949
Volume	3	1950	through	1959
Volume	4	1960	through	1964

Sanford To Talk About 'The Potter'

North Knoxville Class To Be Guest At ABC Session.

"Acts are nothing but thoughts gone to seed," Herbert C. Sanford, teacher of the ABC Bible class, said in explanation of the theme of his sermon at 8:45 a. m. tomorrow at the Strand theatre.

Special visitors will be the men's Bible class of North Knoxville Baptist church, headed by the Rev. M. J. Smith, pastor, who also will conduct early devotionals. Joe Caddell will be the three-minute speaker.

Basing his theme on the topic,
"Marred in the Hands of the Potter," Sanford will point out the value of the potter's moldings.

"Among all the human crafts, none is more wonderful than that of the potter. He is the man who takes the dead inert clay and breathes into it his skill and ideals, and with his fingers gives expression which otherwise would not be seen or known," Sanford said.

Pointing out the possibility of applying the symbol of the potter fashioning clay to the development of life itself, Sanford said that "God is the Potter with a plan for everyday life."
